

I am strictly against allowing cellular phones on airplanes. There is no way to get away from someone having a conversation. It's worse than second hand smoke!